A truly international event

Since its beginning in 2008, the Eduniversal World Convention has been the annual meeting for business education stakeholders from all over the world and has seen increasing number of participants every year. This year's convention recorded 200 attendees of 52 different nationalities.

With representatives from all 9 Eduniversal academic zones (Africa, Central Asia, Western Europe, North America, Far East Asia Oceania, Latin America, Eastern Europe, Eurasia & the Middle East) and speakers from 17 different countries, the Convention turned out to be a truly international event gathering the best of business education (top international business schools; companies such as Infosys, Schneider; educational associations such as RABE, CEEMAN, BMDA and professional associations like NASCOM) on a single podium.

The Eduniversal Gala Awards Ceremony

One of the highlights of the 6th Eduniversal World Convention was the Gala Awards Ceremony on the evening of October 9th during which the top 3 Business Schools in the 9 Eduniversal academic zones were rewarded.

The Eduniversal awards are notably based on Peers assessment and are attributed according to the ranking year's Deans' Vote Survey in which 1,000 deans and business school directors from more than 150 countries are asked to vote and give their recommendations on the Eduniversal Official Selection.

This year's toppers include Harvard Business School, from the North American region, the IIMs (Indian Institute of Management) in Central Asia, National University of Singapore Business School in the Far East Asian region and the London Business School from Western Europe.
